About HCAOA

Founded in 2002, the industry’s leading trade association currently represents nearly 3,000 companies that employ more than 500,000 caregivers across the United States.

HCAOA serves as the home care industry’s unified voice in Washington, D.C. and state governments across the country.

Representing a diverse number of small, mid-level, and large corporations, HCAOA unites the industry, speaking with one voice in state capitals and Washington, D.C.

HCAOA protects industry interests, promotes the industry’s value, tackles barriers to growth, and takes on industry-wide issues.

From standing up to dangerous misinterpretations of long-standing laws to ensuring that caregivers and clients are protected from abuse, HCAOA is a champion and advocate for its members, for caregivers, and for seniors across America.

HCAOA connects and educates its members.

HCAOA stays on top of the issues and keeps its members informed, whether providing training on the latest business strategies or technology or hosting its dynamic annual leadership conference on today’s cutting-edge issues. HCAOA enables home care companies to grow, advance their workers’ skills, and meet the needs of America’s seniors.

Who Attends the HCAOA Annual Leadership Conference?

The conference is unlike any other national home care industry meeting because it represents a true industry dialogue—our attendees and speakers are company leaders who are intent on expanding services within their individual markets across the country. We represent home care providers nationwide and are anticipating record attendance in 2020 as members continue to seek the expertise needed to improve their business operations within the ever-evolving home care industry.

Seize this opportunity to interact with hundreds of committed industry leaders seeking improvement in quality and access for home care services in one centralized location. With a variety of event opportunities throughout the conference—trade show breaks, meal functions, and an opening night reception—there is no shortage of platforms to interact with key decision makers and drive your message to conference participants.

Conference attendees experience the latest in trends and education focused on the home care industry. The conference program includes networking and training sessions regarding the latest innovations in sales/marketing, government regulations, business practices, and training methods along with a variety of engaging presenters.
