Angela has the skill, experience and heart to work with any client she is paired with – going 150% above and beyond expectations! Her agency regularly receives calls from community partners singing her praises, and said they consider themselves privileged to employ and work with such an amazing person. Angela has been working with her current client for more than two years, assisting her in getting to doctor appointments, getting her health on track, and even reconnecting her with family whom she missed greatly. This client says she is able to live her most fabulous life in her beautiful home because of Angela. Her supervisor agrees, and said if it wasn't for Angela, this senior would not be thriving and living the life she is now – independent at home. Angela on many occasions has spent holidays with her client or suggested the client to invite neighbors or friends over. Angela assists her in preparing barbeques or lunches to ensure her client can continue to enjoy the socialization that she needs and loves. This relationship over time has come to mean as much to Angela as it does to her client. Angela has succeeded in building such a wonderful and caring relationship with her client that she was the one person who was able to guide and assist her to make some changes in her life to benefit her well-being.
