Tonia
Davy

Right at Home
Omaha, NE

---

Tonia is a very kind person, friendly and compassionate. She is passionate about caregiving and dedicated to helping others. She can always be relied on, is positive and always willing to be helpful when needed. She has an amazing work ethic and has become part of her clients' families. She has been loyal and speaks highly of the company and has exceptional communication with office staff and family members. She is attentive to her clients' needs, cares about their quality of life, and forms a unique bond with those she cares for. Tonia came on board with the agency during the peak of COVID-19, putting her clients' needs before her own – and doing so with no complaints and while maintaining safety protocols. She regularly shares concerns that arise with her clients, and because she is observant and able to catch on to changes quickly, she has prevented possible hospitalizations and potential safety hazards.
